

Dr. Nicole VanDeLeest | Chief Medical Director + Veterinarian

Fountain Square

Special Interests

- Feline Medicine
- Surgery

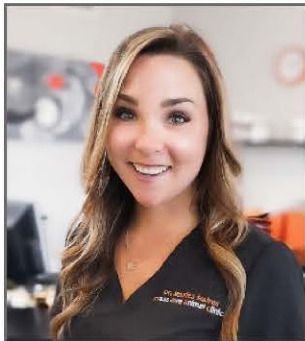

Education

Purdue University, BS in Animal Sciences, 2009

Purdue University School of Veterinary Medicine, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, 2013

Personal

Dr. VanDeLeest brought her expertise and compassion to City Way Animal Clinics in 2015. She enjoys winning in trivia and exploring Indy. When she's not treating her patients, she's traveling, baking, or watching sports. (Go Purdue!)

Dr. Jessica Squires | Associate Veterinarian

Mass Ave

Special Interests

- Oncology
- Internal Medicine
- Client Education

Education

Purdue University, BS in Biology, 2012

IUPUI, MS in Biology, 2013

Purdue University College of Veterinary Medicine, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, 2018

Personal

Dr. Squires brought her fresh perspective and compassion to City Way Animal Clinics in 2018. When she's not at the clinic, she's running, practicing yoga, and boating with friends and family. She loves the Pacers and IndyCar.

Dr. Patricia Neyenhaus | Associate Veterinarian

Fall Creek Place

Special Interests

- Internal Medicine
- Pain Management
- Client Education

Education

Butler University, BS in Biology, 1999

Purdue University College of Veterinary Medicine, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, 2004

Personal

Dr. Neyenhaus came to City Way Animal Clinics in 2018 and has been a veterinarian since 2004. She is full of knowledge, with years of experience at emergency, specialty, and general practice clinics under her belt. She loves being outside, especially hiking, camping, and organic gardening. She enjoys reading, making cookies, and cheering on her kids at sporting events.

Dr. Laura Smith | Associate Veterinarian

Fall Creek Place

Special Interests

- Feline Medicine
- Fear-Free Medicine
- Surgery

Education

Purdue University, BA in Chemistry with a minor in Psychology, 2000

Purdue University, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, 2005

Michigan Veterinary Specialists, Internship in Small Animal Medicine & Surgery, 2006

Personal

Dr. Smith came to City Way Animal Clinics in 2019 with 10 years of prior experience as an emergency veterinarian. When she's not at the clinic, she's researching genealogy and DNA for fun! She is an officer in The Indiana Society of Mayflower Descendants and The First Indiana Company of Jamestown Society.

Dr. Anna Jones | Associate Veterinarian

Irvington

Special Interests

- Client Education
- Internal Medicine

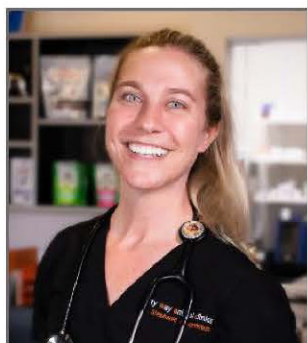

Education

Sewanee: The University of the South, B.S. in Chemistry, 2009

Purdue University School of Veterinary Medicine, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, 2013

Personal

Dr. Jones came to City Way Animal Clinics in 2020 with seven years of veterinary experience from her time living in San Francisco, CA. When she's not in the clinic, Dr. Jones can be found outside hiking or just enjoying the day.

Dr. Stephanie Morgenstern | Associate Veterinarian

Fountain Square

Special Interests

- Shelter Medicine
- Dermatology
- Physical Therapy

Education

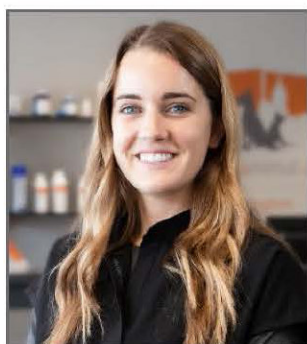

Indiana University, BA. in Business, 2008

DePaul University, M.B.A. in Marketing Research, 2012

Purdue University School of Veterinary Medicine, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, 2020

Personal

Dr. Morgenstern came to City Way Animal Clinics in 2020 after working as a veterinary assistant for 3 years in Chicago. When she's not in the clinic, Dr. Morgenstern is running, doing Pilates, or just spending some time outside. She's passionate about traveling and loves learning about different cultures.

Dr. Madeleine Bryan | Associate Veterinarian

Mass Ave

Special Interests

- Surgery
- Ophthalmology
- Pain Management
- Rehabilitation

Education

Saint Louis University, BS in Biology, 2017

Purdue University College of Veterinary Medicine, DVM, 2021

Personal

Dr. Bryan came to City Way Animal Clinics in 2021 as a new graduate and is passionate about animal welfare and ethics. She travels whenever she can and loves experiencing different cultures. She has an appreciation for hiking in the mountains and visiting her family.

Dr. Kristi Crow | Associate veterinarian

Fountain Square

Special Interests

- Surgery
- Dermatology
- Pain Management
- Client Education

Education

Purdue University, BS in Animal Sciences 2016

Purdue University School of Veterinary Medicine, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, 2020

Personal

Dr. Crow joined City Way in 2022 after previously practicing in the Chicago-land area. Dr. Crow's love of veterinary medicine began while she went to vet visits with her first dog growing up, Bailey. The diversity of the vet field and ability to help multiple species ultimately allowed Dr. Crow to choose veterinary medicine instead of human medicine. When Dr. Crow is not in the clinic, you can find her adventuring with her two doodles, Ren and Romeo, traveling the world, or binge watching reality TV shows. Dr. Crow is passionate about your pets but also passionate about educating pet owners about all things health and wellness! Feel free to check out her Instagram page: @dogforkristi

Dr. Sarah Kurdziel | Associate Veterinarian

Fountain Square & Mass Ave

Special Interests

- Wound Care
- Preventative Medicine
- Surgery
- Feline Medicine

Education

Purdue University, BS in Biology, 2019

Purdue University College of Veterinary Medicine, DVM, 2022

Personal

Dr. Kurdziel came to City Way Animal Clinics in 2022 after graduating and is focused on providing the absolute best care for her patients. When she is not in the clinic, Dr. Kurdziel is spending time with her fiancé, Kevin, and their two cats, Zelda and Link. Her hobbies include listening to all genres of music, reading, and playing video games. She travels when she is able but also appreciates a relaxing night at home.